that despite recent increase in production, separation of employees on retirement, death etc., in all 42 candidates only were given employment in the month of February, 2003. It is further submitted that no further recruitment from the old panel will be made by the Bhilai Steel Plant. It is also submitted that the Bhilai Steel Plant will inform all future vacancies in the category of trade apprentice to the Employment Exchange and the recruitment will be done strictly in accordance with the provisions of the Employment Exchange (Compulsory Notification of Vacancies) Act, 1959 and open advertisement will also be made in news papers.

This is recorded. It is for the respondent No.1 to act in accordance with the statement above.

In view of the statement made above, counsel for the parties stated that the petition may be disposed of at this stage.

Having thus considered, the petition stands disposed of.

Consequently, I.A.No.3/2004 also stands disposed of.
